- Between 5 and 25 October, 1952, the Security Police (UB) arrested approximately 30 families living in the Cisowa, Chylonia, and Grabowek suburbs of Gdynia. These arrests always took place at night.  the 25X1 families concerned were politically suspect and their deportation had some connection with the approaching elections.
- The houses and furniture belonging to those who were deported were requisitioned by the Gdynia Municipal National Council. The requisitioned property was subsequently allocated to workers employed in the Paris Commune Shipyard in Gdynia.
